NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

—Gen. McClellan reports to Gen. Hallock, as some of the results of the battles of South Mountain and Antietam, as follows:

	South Mountain.	Antietam.	Total.
Killed.....	443	2,910	3,353
Wounded.....	1,363	9,616	10,979
Missing.....	26	1,042	1,068
Total.....	1,832	13,568	15,400

During the Maryland campaign, we captured 13 guns, 7 caissons, 9 limbers, 2 field forges, 2 caissons, 300 horses, 300 mules, 1 signal flag. We have not lost a single gun or a color. On the battle-field of Antietam, 14,000 small arms were collected, beside the large number carried off by citizens and other unarmamented men arriving immediately after the battle. At South Mountain no collection of small-arms was made, but, owing to the haste of the pursuit from that point, 400 were taken on the opposite side of the Potomac. As to the losses of the Rebels, Gen. McClellan says that about 3,000 were buried by our men on the field of Antietam, beside which perhaps 500 were buried by the Rebels. Their killed at South Mountain he estimates at 500—say 4,000 killed in the two battles; wounded, from 18,000 to 19,000; prisoners taken by us, at least 5,000—total rebel loss, about 30,000. The losses in our several divisions at the battle of Antietam are given in detail by our special correspondent. They are:

	Killed.	Wounded.	Missing.	Total.
Cornell's.....	874	3,333	261	4,468
Smith's.....	345	2,706	255	3,306
McCall's.....	209	1,398	101	1,708
Franklin's.....	102	340	36	478
Burnside's.....	428	1,741	118	2,287
Total.....	1,958	9,518	571	12,047

These figures are official and nearly exact.

—Some sensation was created yesterday by a Washington dispatch printed in The Philadelphia Inquirer, asserting that "it is rumored" that Peace Commissioners are on the way from Richmond to propose a settlement of the war on these terms: "The loyal States are to take all the Territories, Missouri, Tennessee, Kentucky and Maryland, and to make them free or Slave States, as may best please them. The Cotton States are to be permitted to have a Congress of their own, to regulate their own domestic affairs only. In all other things to be again as one, and an inseparable people. For defensive and offensive operations against other countries to be a unity. In all matters of postal and revenue service to be as heretofore. They pledging to return all Government property to us as they found it. They, in addition to having us recognize their authority to have this Congress, to regulate their peculiar institutions, are to be permitted Senators and Representatives in our Halls of Congress, but only in such numbers as their free white population is entitled to." Of course this absurd story refutes itself.

—Within a day or two past, Gen. Stahl's Brigade, being a part of Gen. Sigel's Corps, advanced to Warrenton Junction, about forty-one miles from Washington, without meeting the enemy. Yesterday they went to Warrenton village, ten miles west, and there met a large number (about 1,200) of sick and wounded Rebels, together with a few conscripts, prisoners, whom they paroled. Gen. Stahl continued his reconnaissance to Salem and White Plains, but found no Rebels in that neighborhood. A report prevailed at Alexandria that Gen. Sigel's troops had recaptured all the engines and cars which the enemy obtained from the wreck at Rietown and Warrenton Junction.

—Surgeon-General Moore (Rebel) reports the number of sick and wounded received in the Richmond Hospitals since their organization to be 99,598. Of these, 9,774 have been discharged; 2,341 have been discharged, and 7,693 have died. At the Chatham Hospital, there were received 21,895, of which 2,033 died. At the Winter Hospital, the number received was 22,874, of which 1,271 died. The whole number of sick and wounded received in the Petersburg Hospitals was 11,170.

—Gov. Bradford of Maryland has published an official letter of thanks to Major-General McClellan and his officers and men, to Gov. Curtin and the Pennsylvania militia, and to the Maryland troops in the Union army, for their great services in expelling the Rebel invaders from the soil of Maryland.

—Gen. Halleck calls upon State Governors to fill the great number of vacancies in the volunteer forces caused by recent casualties, by the appointment and promotion of non-commissioned officers and privates who have distinguished themselves in the field or shown due capacity for command.

—A court-martial has been ordered to meet at Fort Columbus, New-York, to-day, for the trial of Ordnance-Sergeant Baldwin charged with a brutal and unprovoked assault on Capt. S. M. Spole, of the 4th Infantry, U. S. A.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The McGrath habeas corpus case, which has been adjourned a number of times, was finally dismissed yesterday, the plaintiff's counsel (Mr. Edwin James) not appearing—it was said in consequence of pecuniary disappointment. The sudden suspension of the case has deprived the world of a highly interesting biography of the ex-Reverend Malcolm Ives, late Herald writer and prisoner of State—a biography which had been carefully prepared and was ready to be placed on the records of the court. This is to be regretted, as Mr. Ives has been something of a public character, and an accurate history of his antecedents and career would doubtless clear up some points of uncertainty which at present give occasion for unpleasant differences of opinion.

—The Union State Central Convention met at the Astor House yesterday, and elected the following gentlemen as permanent officers for the ensuing year: Chairman, Judge Low, of Sullivan; Secretary, Ben. Field, of New Orleans; Treasurer, Isaac Sherman, of New-York; Executive Committee, Nathan J. Spaulding, of Chateaugay; Abraham Wakeman, of New-York; Charles Jones, of Kings; C. R. Richards, of Rensselaer; W. S. Lincoln, of Tioga; and Hamilton Harris, of Albany. A resolution of thanks was tendered to Simon Draper, Chairman of the Committee last year, and short addresses were delivered by the Hon. Lyman Tremaine, Mr. Wake-man and others.

—That parlor meeting of hybrids, called at the Everett House last night, was largely attended by such Democrats and Know-Nothings as reprobate Freedom, and swear horribly at the mere mention of the President's proclamation. They held a secret class-meeting—a sort of Brooks-Purdy love-feast—the War Horse falling upon the neck of The Express editor, and fondly kissing him, as Eben of the flesh-pots did his long-absent brother David—there were tears of reconciliation, drinks all around, and a Committee was raised to raise money and hire people to attend a Know-Nothing-Democratic Ratification meeting that is to come off hereafter.

—The Liquor-sellers' State Convention at Syracuse yesterday unanimously nominated the regular Democratic candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor (Horatio Seymour and D. R. Floyd Jones). It was, of course, expected; Mike Walsh years ago proclaimed the axiom "Grogshops are the nurseries of Democracy," and why should the nurse turn away from her offspring? The Convention professed to ignore parties altogether.

—Col. Forsyth, formerly editor of The Mobile Register, and Minister to Mexico, is reported to have been killed in a recent skirmish with Col. Cook's Regiment in Kentucky. He held at various times public offices of distinction, that of Minister to Mexico among the rest. He was one of the delegation sent by the Secessionists to Washington, to see if a peaceful separation of the States could not be agreed to there.

—Our files of Richmond papers are up to the 27th of Sept., inclusive. They contain no important news, but such as we find worth copying is printed elsewhere. A late number of The Charleston Mercury says that large Union reinforcements are gathering at Hilton Head and along the coast. Pinckney Island is in their possession.

—The speech of the Hon. Lyman Tremaine, delivered in the State Convention at Syracuse last week, of which we had at the time a brief synopsis, as printed at length on the second page of this morning's edition.

—The Aldermen held a session yesterday. Mayor Opydyke nominated David R. Jacques for street Commissioner, but, on motion of Alderman Boole, the nomination was rejected. Another meeting will be held on a p. m. to-day.

—The French steam corvette Forfait, Commander Reneuve de la Mure, from Vera Cruz September 18, arrived on Tuesday morning. She mounts four guns, has a complement of 250 horse power, a crew of 134 men, and is 800 tons burden.

—Leane Congdon Taber, Mayor of New-Bedford, died at his residence in that city on Monday afternoon. He was first elected Mayor in 1859, and held the office till the day of his death, having been successively re-elected.

—A dispatch from Rochester states that the New-York State Fair promises to open finely to-day. The show throughout is expected to be unusually full and interesting.

—The Hon. Benjamin F. Hallist, the widely-known lawyer and Democratic leader of Massachusetts, died at Boston yesterday.

—The Hon. J. Prescott Hall, formerly a prominent Whig politician in this city, died at Newport, R. I., a day or two since.

STATE OF THE MARKETS.

The market still retains its unparalleled strength and vitality, with no perceptible indication of yielding. Each day witnesses a new accession of buyers, and increased business, and blocks of 1,000 shares are swept off the floor in a twinkling by the new comers. The Stock Exchange has even been the theatre of public feeling, and the community are now expressing their opinion of ultimate results in indiscriminate investments. Government securities are in all demand. The 100,000 100 bid for 100; the 100,000 4 per cent better, in most cases at 124. The 100,000 5 per cent 1 per cent to 100; the 100,000 5 per cent 1 per cent to 100. The market, under various rumors and realizing sales, was heavy, and showed some decline from the highest point of the morning. Gold fell 1/4 to 124, under pressure from a new accession of buyers, and increased business, and blocks of 1,000 shares are swept off the floor in a twinkling by the new comers.
